(The scholarship is only for the study conducted in the Slovak language. If you cannot speak Slovak, you have to pass a 10-month Slovak language course (such course is also covered by the scholarship).)

Documents required:

- A record of the highest level of education attained - A school leaving certificate or university degree. If an applicant attained their highest level of education outside of the Slovak Republic, authentication of the signatures and the stamp of the school issuing proof of education is required by the state authority issuing such record or the state authority at the school's location responsible for such authentication unless an international treaty stipulates otherwise. A certified translation is required of any record confirming the highest level of attained education or a birth certificate completed in any language other than Slovak, Czech, English, French or Spanish; such certified translation may be completed into any of these languages. A record of the highest level of education attained must be added electronically by 31 August at the latest – only applicable to students in their last year of studies.

- A completion certificates - A completion certificate from a secondary school if attached to an application for language education for studies in a first-level academic program or an academic program combining the first and second-levels or studies in such an academic program; otherwise, a transcript of university studies is required. A certificate from the last year of studies must be added electronically by 31 August at the latest – only applicable to students in their last year of studies.
- A letter of acceptance - An acceptance letter if it is an application for studies at university. Must be added by 31 August at the latest.
- Birth certificate - If a birth certificate is in other language than Slovak, Czech, English, French or Spanish, then a certified translation into one of these languages is required.
- Photograph - A photograph measuring 3.5 cm x 4 cm showing the person's full face, with no glasses with dark lenses, with the face height from the eyes to the chin of at least 13 mm; minimum resolution of 350 x 400 pixels is required for digital images.
- Recommendations - 1. Recommendations from two educational staff members of the secondary school issuing the completion certificate if it is an application for language education for studies in a first-level academic program or an academic program combining the first and second-levels or studies in such an academic program, or 2. Recommendations from two university instructors from the university issuing the transcript if it is an application for language education for studies in a second-level academic program or a third-level academic program or studies in such an academic program.
- Curriculum vitae - A signed curriculum vitae.
- Publications - Bibliographical details of publication activities in the scope of the name, author and publisher details with respect to language education for studies in a third-level academic program or studies in such an academic program.
- Passport - A copy of the pages of a passport (travel document) containing the personal details of the holder.
- Signed application - The last part "Confirmation" of electronically sent application form with signature.
